

Newly remodeled Liberty Middle School has many touches that give the building a personality of its own, more than just being a renovated version of the old Camas High School.